General Description,

This township is generally, not susceptible of cultivation, a small part of the North part of it only can be cultivated.

The Kankakee river is a sluggish stream. Its banks, are very low & thick on either side with a heavy growth of timber, mostly Ash, some Elm Maple Spaw. & P. Oak & Birch which grows very tall & is undergrown, with swamp alder Wild Rose &c, making an interminable forest, which is covered with water during the season. The soil in this forest or swamp, is a loose yellow sand which renders it almost impracticable to approach the river, when the swamp is frozen.

In the marshes in the N. part of the Township, there are large beds of rich Iron ore.
